A Year of Growth and Impact

Dear Friends and Faithful Supporters,

As we close the chapter on another transformative year at Fathers & Families Support Center, I am filled with immense gratitude and pride.

Because of generous friends and supporters, 2024 has been a year of significant growth, deepening our impact on the lives of fathers, families and the St. Louis community.

We've witnessed firsthand the resilience and determination of the men, women and youth we serve, and your unwavering support which has been the cornerstone of our success.

This year, we focused on strengthening our core programs, expanding our reach and innovating to meet the evolving needs of our community. We saw:

Expanded Program Reach: We successfully increased our enrollment in our fatherhood and workforce development programs, providing more dads and moms with the tools and resources they need to become responsible, engaged parents and financially stable individuals.

Enhanced Workforce Development: Recognizing the critical need for sustainable employment, we refined our job training and placement services, leading to a significant increase in successful job placements and career advancement opportunities.

Strengthened Family Support: Our family support services continued to provide vital resources and guidance, fostering healthy relationships and promoting the well-being of entire families.

Community Partnerships: We deepened our collaborations with key community partners, enabling us to leverage resources and expand our impact across the region.

Technological Advancement: We have begun the process of improving our data collection and program management technologies to ensure that we are always providing the most effective services possible.

These accomplishments are a direct result of the dedication of our staff, the commitment of our volunteers, and the generosity of our donors. Your belief in our mission empowers us to continue breaking down barriers and building stronger families.

However, our work is far from over. The challenges facing fathers and families in our community remain significant. Looking ahead to 2025, we are energized by the opportunities to further expand our impact and create lasting change.

We are committed to building upon the momentum of this past year and continuing to serve as a beacon of hope and support for fathers and families in St. Louis.

Thank you for your continued partnership and belief in our mission. Together, we are making a difference.

Cheri Tillis, Chief Excellence Officer

FATHERS & FAMILIES FOREVER

ENDOWMENT

Nearly 30 years of transforming lives and building stronger families. Now, we embark on a legacy — Fathers & Families Forever Endowment Fund. A 4-star Charity Navigator rating confirms our unwavering commitment to stewardship. This endowment isn't just about financial stability; it's about igniting lasting change, expanding vital programs, and empowering generations to come. Invest in the future — through cash gifts, appreciated stock, or estate planning — and become a part of a legacy that echoes through eternity. Your gift isn't just a donation; it's a foundation for a stronger humanity. Our collective future depends on the families we build today.

Halbert Sullivan, our visionary founder and long-serving CEO, understood the profound impact of engaged fatherhood. He recognized the enduring advantages it bestowed upon children and the positive ripple effects it created within the broader community. Beyond his insightful vision, Halbert was a man of action. Today, the dedicated members of the society bearing his name continue his legacy, ensuring FFSC's vital work is carried out with unwavering commitment and excellence.

The names of the various levels of annual support within the Halbert Sullivan Society have been chosen from among the inspiring words that Halbert used each and everyday. Levels include: Hero $50,000; Champion $25,000; Responsible $10,000; Provider $5,000; Friend $2,500.

Forged in the spirit of enduring generosity, and named in honor of our visionary champions, William "Bill" and Mary Lou Schicker, the Schicker Society stands as a testament to transformative impact. These are not merely donors; they are architects of hope. With a lifetime commitment of $25,000 or more, sustained over at least five years, they fuel our mission's expansion, enabling us to reach further, serve deeper, and ignite brighter futures for countless men and children. ## WATCH RE-ENTRY SUCCESS STORY

Watch graduate Antoine White's story of transformation, covered by News Anchor David Amelotti of First Alert KMOV 4! Fathers & Families Support Center's Re-Entry Project provided Antwane with crucial support after his 10-year incarceration away from his family. Our six-week Re-Entry Project focuses on equipping formerly incarcerated fathers and men with the tools necessary to reintegrate into society and maintain positive relationships with their children. Through this project, FFSC directly addresses the often-overlooked phase of life after imprisonment, offering a structured path to avoid recidivism and foster responsible fatherhood.

MOTHERS PANEL

Part of Fathers & Families Support Center's (FFSC) six-week Family Formation program, the Mothers Panel joins program participants in class during the third week for a half-day of sharing parenting perspectives and insights. Comprised of program participants who are moms and volunteers who are moms, the Mothers Panel catalyzes a profound shift in how dads view moms. As one graduate admitted, "I was completely blind to her perspective." By directly engaging with mothers who shared their experiences, the Mothers Panel shatters preconceptions and fosters a deep understanding of the maternal viewpoint. This newfound awareness spurs a fundamental change in parenting approaches, leading to greater collaborative co-parenting and ultimately strengthening the foundation for their children's future.

CHILD SUPPORT SYMPOSIUM

During the fifth week, a crucial child support symposium takes center stage. This session aims to educate both fathers and mothers on the significance of equitable financial contributions towards their children's well-being. By emphasizing the importance of paying a "fair share," the symposium underscores the shared responsibility of parenthood. Furthermore, it provides a stark and realistic overview of the potential legal and personal repercussions that arise from neglecting or failing to fulfill child support obligations, thereby fostering a sense of accountability and promoting financial stability within families.

FFSC, A LAUNCHPAD FOR YOUTH CAREERS

Imagine a front desk buzzing with fresh energy, a place where potential isn't just seen, it's nurtured! Thanks to our partnership with STL Youth Jobs, Fathers & Families Support Center (FFSC) is now a launchpad for young minds, adding fresh talent to the workforce. Youth enrolled in FFSC's Youth Leadership & Development Program (YLDP) experience an opportunity to grow their skills and self-confidence. They aren't just answering phones; they're mastering administrative skills, learning office operations and redefining their potential, one task at a time, working at FFSC's downtown HQ. "Every morning feels like a mission," one youth shared, "I'm not just working, I'm building myself."

This echoes the very heart of our YLDP, a program that, since 2002, has been sculpting success stories for young adults who are underserved, empowering them to forge paths where they might otherwise see none.

2024 FATHER OF THE YEAR

Denied access to his daughter, Travion M. found himself at Fathers & Families Support Center (FFSC), a place where isolation gave way to solidarity. He discovered he wasn't alone in his struggle. The program became his arsenal, equipping him with the crucial tools of effective co-parenting, improved communication, and unwavering emotional support. This wasn't just about changing his circumstances; it was about transforming his relationships with his daughter and her mother.

FFSC's impact extended far beyond parenting skills. Skilled therapists delved into Travion's past trauma, nurturing his ongoing mental health and fostering resilience. A donated suit from the "Suits For Success Closet" did more than boost his appearance; it ignited his confidence and fueled his entrepreneurial spirit. This holistic approach didn't just open doors—it forged a new path for Travion.

Now, Travion's life is marked by regular, joyful visits with Skylar, including cherished weekly "Daddy-Daughter Days." He's a thriving entrepreneur, imparting the values of hard work and providing for his daughter. His commitment to continuous personal growth ensures he's not only the best father he can be, but also the best version of himself.

SECOND CHANCE AWARD

Imagine a life where every door slammed shut, where foster care was a revolving nightmare, and prison became a grim inevitability. That was Reginald T.'s reality. He was a ghost in his own life, trapped in a cycle of despair, convinced his future was pre-written in prison ink. "I didn't have the right structure, right guidance or right tools to be a better person," he confessed, the words a raw echo of a life starved of hope. Then, a spark ignited in the darkness. Charles Barnes, a facilitator with Fathers & Families Support Center's Re-Entry Project, saw not a statistic, but a man. He offered a hand, a pathway, a chance at reclaiming not just freedom, but fatherhood. The program wasn't about reducing numbers; it was about rebuilding families. Reginald emerged, his ten-year sentence transformed into a decade of rebirth. He carved out a business, embraced his role as a father of three, and became a constant, unwavering presence in his stepdaughter's life. Reginald's story is a powerful reminder that even after years lost in the shadows, the human spirit can rise, triumphant.

Since its first class in 1998, FFSC supported nearly 22,000 fathers on their journey to Responsible Fatherhood, benefitting over 53,000 sons and daughters!
